FROM THE PASTOR

THE HABIT OF WEALTH BY OSWALD CHAMBERS

HE HAS GIVEN US HIS VERY GREAT AND PRECIOUS PROMISES, SO THAT THROUGH THEM YOU MAY PARTICIPATE IN THE DIVINE NATURE.— 2 PETER 1:4

Through God's promises, we participate in the divine nature. But if we want to express the divine nature in our human nature, we must form habits—and the very first habit we must form is the habit of recognizing God's provision.

Do you often find yourself saying, "I can't afford it"? One of the worst lies is tucked up in this statement. It's considered bad taste to talk about money—how much you have or don't have—and the same is true of spiritual riches. We talk as though our heavenly Father has cut us off without a cent. We think it's a sign of modesty to say, "It was a real struggle, but I got by." Meanwhile, all of God Almighty is ours through the Lord Jesus Christ.

If we obey God, he will tax the last grain of sand and the remotest star to bless us. What does it matter if our external circumstances are difficult? Why shouldn't they be? If we indulge in the luxury of misery and give way to self-pity, we banish God's riches from our lives. No sin is worse than self-pity, because it erases God and puts self-interest on the throne. It opens our mouths to spit out streams of complaint, and our lives become constantly craving spiritual sponges, with nothing lovely or generous about them.

When God is beginning to be satisfied with us, he will impoverish every source of phony wealth in our lives, until we learn that true wealth lies only in him. If we aren't consciously aware of the fact that his majesty and grace and power are being manifested in us, God holds us responsible.

"God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work" (2 Corinthians 9:8). Learn to lavish the blessings of God on others, and his blessings will come through you all the time.

For the King
Robbie
